

To Better Understand What We Mean by Faith: Conviction, trust, belief, a reliance in God and all that He says, to have an inward confidence, an assurance, to be fully persuaded

- Faith begins when we settle two questions: 1. Is He Willing? 2. Is He Able?

Proverbs 3:5-7 (CSB)

Trust in the Lord with all of your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding; in all your ways know him, and he will make your paths straight. Don't be wise in your own eyes; fear the Lord and turn away from evil. This will be healing for your body and strengthening for your bones.

- The Hebrew word for trust means to lie down on. To put your entire weight on something.
- When you go to sleep, you lie down on your bed because you know it is strong enough to hold you.
- With all of your heart means entirely, without exception.
- So, what God is saying is, "Trust me completely; I can sustain you. Your own understanding won't help you.
- In all your ways know him covers anything having to do with your life. We know and acknowledge Him in all our ways by prayerfully consulting His Word.

First Look: Matthew 8:1-3 (He Is Willing)

Second Look: Matthew 8:5-13 (He Has the Power & Authority)

Hebrews 4:12 (AMP)

For the word of God is living and active and full of power [making it operative, energizing, and effective]. It is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating as far as the division of the soul and spirit [the completeness of a person], and of both joints and marrow [the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and judging the very thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Isaiah 55:11 (NASB)

So will My word be which goes out of My mouth; it will not return to Me empty, without accomplishing what I desire, and without succeeding in the purpose for which I sent it.

Proverbs 4:10; 20-22 (AMP)

10 Hear, my son, and accept my sayings, and the years of your life will be many.

20-22 My son, pay attention to my words and be willing to learn; open your ears to my sayings. Do not let them escape from your sight; keep them in the center of your heart. For they are life to those who find them, and healing and health to all their flesh.

Proverbs 4:23 (NIV)

Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.

Main Text: Mark 5:25-34 (The Woman with The Issue of Blood)

Luke 6:45 (NKJV)

*A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good; an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Proverbs 12:18 (AMP)

There is one who speaks rashly like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.
